Leeds Jewish Free School and Brodetsky Primary School in conjunction with the Leeds Jewish Education Authority (Talmud Torah) are seeking to employ a Rabbinic Couple of Family Educators who will provide Jewish Education across our community

Primarily based at The Henry Cohen Youth Campus

The post involves Teaching Limmudei Kodesh at a high standard to students in both primary and high school years, which will include the running of the Bat Chayil course and preparation for Bar Mitzvah. It is anticipated that the successful couple will also interact with parents from within the community raising the awareness and observance of Jewish practice.

The ideal couple will have a s'micha recognised by the Office of the Chief Rabbi or have graduated after a number of years study from a Yeshiva or Seminary.

Attractive salary is dependent on previous experience and is based on the teaching scale.

It is hoped that the successful candidate will be in post by January 1st 2019.

If you think that this is you, please reply in the first instance to sagi.yechezkel@ljfs.org. Interviews will be held in December 2018.
